NPC Medical Declaration

On behalf of,_____(print name of National Paralympic Committee) ("NPC"), I agree to the following as a condition of BOCOG permitting the NPC's medical staff to provide medical services at official Paralympic venues in China in connection with the Beijing 2008 Paralympic Games ("Games"):

1. The NPC acknowledges that it is only permitted to provide medical services in Games venues to:
- Its own Paralympic team members, the NPC guaranteeing that it has acquired their consent to execute the present Declaration and,
- Paralympic teams of other countries, provided that the NPC has obtained the consent of the National Paralympic Committee of that other country.

2. The NPC advises that to date it has obtained consent from the following National Paralympic Committees to provide medical services in Games venues to Paralympic teams of the countries listed below:

(If there is a prior agreement, copy of the agreement should be provided to BOCOG as affiliated document.)

3. If the NPC provides medical services in Games venues, the NPC:
- Undertakes that it will not provide medical services in Games venues to any person other than a member of each own team or any of the Paralympic teams for which it has the relevant consent to provide medical services;
- Accepts all responsibility for the provision of medical services in Games venues by the NPC's medical staff and/or reimbursement of medical/surgical expenses incurred in connection with these services and indemnifies BOCOG and the IPC against all claims, liabilities, losses, damages and costs (including legal costs) arising from the provision of medical services in Games venues by the NPC's medical staff;
- Accepts all responsibility for all equipment and other property of the NPC medical staff brought onto Games venues and agrees that BOCOG accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage to this property; and
- Undertakes to comply with all applicable laws and regulations (including occupational health and safety regulations), all venue rules, conditions and procedures while performing medical services in Games venues.

4. If the NPC provides medical services in Games venues or consents to the National Paralympic Committee or another country providing medical services to the NPC's Paralympic team, the NPC agrees that it will not bring any claims against BOCOG (or its directors, officers, employees; volunteers, contractors or agents) in connection with the facilities and medical equipment provided by BOCOG at the Games venues or the medical services provided by the NPC or any other National Paralympic Committee for any loss, liability, injury or damage howsoever caused.

5. If the NPC import pharmaceuticals and dietary supplements to cover the needs of its members, the NPC:
- Agrees to declare all pharmaceuticals upon customs clearance;
- Agrees to maintain all pharmaceuticals in their original packaging;
- Accepts all responsibility in relation to the chemical composition of dietary supplements and agrees that BOCOG accepts no responsibility for possible inclusion of banned substances (either by Chinese legislation or by IPC rules) in such dietary supplements.
